

K-love is a very big part of my families life and it serves our local community by providing information about events that I am very interested in. I would be extremely disappointed it K-love was displaced. K-love provides music I enjoy and provides information in news, weather and events where my family and members of my community would be interested in attending. Mostly information about Concerts, church activities and children and family events as well. Thank you.

Liliana Forney